WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1. 1738. Nº 813.

THO' one may be always pretty ſure that the Craſtſman is wrong in what he ſays which one does not know, as well as in what one does; yet when I met with a poſitive Aſſertion in his Journal, that the Engliſh had a juſt and legal Title to the Bay of Campeachy, and conſequently to the cutting and bringing away Log-wood, which Trade it one of the main Cauſes of the Exception given by the Spaniards to the Engliſh Navigators in the Weſt Indies, I could not tell what to think of a Matter I ſo imperfectly underſtood, and Mr. D'Anvers boldly declared himſelf Maſter of; which Declaration was indeed enough for me to conclude that he knew nothing of it, and that what he ſaid, as in other Caſes, was entirely falſe.

BUT ſince that, I have met with authentick Proof of that Falſhood, and of the Vanity and Magnificence of his pretended Authorities by Treaties between England and Spain. I take what follows out of a Memorial preſented to King William in May 1699, by the Lord Preſident of the Seſſions, and the Lord Advocate in Scotland, in behalf of the Scots Company Trading to Africa and the Indies.

IN the Treaty of 1670, it was agreed, 'That the Subjects of Great Britain ſhould not trade to, nor ſail to the Ports and Places which the King of Spain hath in the Weſt Indies.' By which the Company in their Memorial ſay, is only to be underſtood, That the Kings of England and Spain, and their Subjects reſpectively, ſhould forbear Injuries, and likewiſe to trade and navigate without LICENCE, in the Ports and Staples in other of them belonging. Is it therefore an improper Queſtion to ask, Whether the Ships taken and rifled by the Spaniſh Guarda Coſtas, had not been trading in or navigating to the Ports and Staples of the King of Spain without Licence?

THEN ſpeaking of the Bay of Campeachy, we read in the Memorial, 'The Engliſh Merchants having advanced their Stock, were for ſettling a Plantation at the Bottom of the Bay of Campeachy, to facilitate their cutting of Logwood, and therefore deſired the Countenance and Protection of the Government for carrying on this Profitable Trade. The Caſe was conſidered by the Council of England, and it was not found juſt to allow the Protection of the Government: So the Merchants were left only in a permiſſive State, to MANAGE THEIR TRADE upon their PERIL.' If, as Mr. D'Anvers boldly aſſerts, Campeachy, and the Trade thereof, belonged to the Engliſh by Treaty, it would have been but juſt for the Government to have granted Protection to the Merchants; but if they were left to trade at their Peril, it was a Caution to them to keep clear of the Guarda Coſtas. For this is no new Thing, as the Idiots and Ignoramus's in Commerce imagine. Theſe poor Creatures never heard of Guarda Coſtas till they met with them in the News Papers and Journals: Mr. D'Anvers himſelf is aſſuredly one of theſe, and for their better Intelligence, I will add, out of the ſaid Memorial preſented to King William 40 Years ago, 'It is granted that the Spaniards, in their exceſſive Jealouſy, have ſeized and made Prize of the Ships that they have found upon their Coaſts, between Carthagena and Porto Bello.' They not only boarded and ſearch'd, but took and condemn'd them.

THE Scots Company tell his Majeſty King William, that the Ships not only in the Ports, but on the Coaſts, were ſeized and made Prizes. It is true, they did not ſpeak of it as an Act of Injuſtice, but what the Spaniards pretended a Right to, upon the Pretext of Treaties, to uſe their own Words, which are the very Reverſe of Mr. D'Anvers's; and who will the People think the moſt proper Judges of this Matter, King William and the Scots African and Weſt India Company, or the Craſtſman and the Cry of modern Patriots?

It were to be wiſhed, that nobody would take upon him to meddle with this Subject, without at leaſt ſome Knowledge of Terms and Times, if not of Things. It has been abuſed by Invectives and Defences, for want of a little ſuperficial Acquaintance with it, otherwiſe than by Hearſay, or in the News Papers. But it is hoped, now the Great Repreſentative of the Nation is aſſembled, all other Wiſdom will think fit to ſubmit to their's.

THE Memorial referred to, is printed in a little Piece, entitled, Scotland's Right to Caledonia. Anno 1700.

Genoa, January, 10.

IT was given out here for a while, that the Malecontents of Corſica were impatient for the Arrival of the French Troops, that by the Guaranty and Mediation of the King of France, they might return to their Obedience to the Genoeſe: But this Report, which never had many Adherents, has now none at all; ſince we are told what a Revenge the Corſicans took for the Execution of their Leader's Under Secretary, by hanging up a Serjeant, 10 Grenadiers, and 11 Genoeſe Seamen, as Victims to his Manes. Beſides, if the Corſicans had really an Intention to return to their Duty, they would have no need to wait for the Arrival of a French Army; foraſmuch as they might hope for better Terms by throwing themſelves into the Arms of France, or accepting her Mediation, as the Genoeſe did lately, than by ſtaying till they actually are, or at leaſt ſeem to have been forced into it. In ſhort, a Letter has been intercepted, from whence it may ſafely be concluded, that the Sentiments of the Corſicans are different from what they were reported to be here. Some indeed are apt think, that the Malecontents themſelves ſent this Letter on purpoſe to be intercepted, that the Republick might be ſenſible of the Difficulties it will meet with in reducing them. Be this as it will, the Letter is as follows, or at leaſt an Extract of it.

'The Ties of Gratitude and Intereſt oblige us 'to hold out to the laſt Extremity, rather than 'abandon the Leader we have choſe, and renounce 'the Regulations he has made in the Iſland. The 'great Quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions with 'which he continually ſupplies us, the Wiſdom of 'the Laws which he has eſtabliſhed amongſt us, 'and the Manner after which he has put them in 'Execution, demand our Gratitude: And as for Intereſt, 'tis the Intereſt of every Man in particular, 'and of the whole Nation in general; becauſe let 'France be ever ſo equitable, we can never hope 'that ſhe will maintain us in the 10th Part of thoſe 'Advantages which we now enjoy.

'The five Biſhopricks in this Iſland uſed to bring 'in ſome 50,000, others 70 or 80,000 Livres per 'Ann. which the Genoeſe Biſhops uſed to ſpend at 'Genoa, without ſcarce ever ſetting Foot on the 'Iſland. Of theſe Revenues our Leader has ſtripp'd 'them, and after ſetting apart only 6000 for the Support of thoſe who are the Biſhops Drudges at each 'See, he has appropriated the Remainder to the 'Maintenance of Schools and Hoſpitals. As for 'the Tithes which the People uſed to pay to the 'Churches, he has ſuppreſs'd them for the Advantage of every Individual; and that they who ſerve 'the Churches may have wherewithal to live 'honeſtly, he has turn'd out all the Genoeſe, and 'left none to officiate there but the National 'Prieſts. 'Twas computed, that out of 100 private 'Houſes, there were ſcarce 8 that were the Property of thoſe who inhabited them, the reſt being 'engag'd, ſold, mortgag'd, or left by Will to Convents and Chapters. Theodore has recover'd all 'thoſe Houſes, reſtored them to the ancient Families 'to which they formerly belong'd; and where 'any of thoſe Families were extinct, he has given 'them to the Inhabitants. All the Gabels eſtabliſhed 'by the Republick are aboliſhed. The Genoeſe Nobility had Eſtates in the Iſland which brought in '2 Millions and 300,000 Livres a Year, and be'long'd heretofore, for moſt Part, to the ancient 'Families of Corſica. He has turn'd the Genoeſe 'out of all thoſe Eſtates, and reſtor'd to the 'ancient Corſican Families ſuch Part as belong'd 'to them, and the Surpluſage he has diſtributed to 'the new Counts and Marquiſſes of his Creation. 'The Liberty of Fiſhing for Coral, the Reſtoration 'of the Saltworks, the Diſcovery of ſeveral Mines, 'and ſeveral other Advantages of this Nature, 'would ceaſe, for moſt Part, as well as the firſt, 'if we ſhould ever be oblig'd to abandon our 'good Father, and to return under the Dominion 'of the Republick. We are, as it were, in the 'Caſe of the Proteſtants in the North at the Beginning of their Converſion, who were engag'd 'to maintain their new Doctrines, not only becauſe 'they were more agreeable than the old, but alſo 'becauſe they inrich'd both the Sovereign and the 'Subject, at the Expence of thoſe who had educated 'and maintained them in the old Doctrines, &c.'

LONDON.

Yeſterday arrived the Mail due from Holland.

Letters of the 14th ult. O. S. from Vienna ſay, that the Emperor will ſhortly recognize the King Don Carlos as King of the Two Sicilies: that Spain will accede in Form to the Treaty concluded between their Imperial and moſt Chriſtian Majeſties; and that a Marriage is on the Tapis between the Infante Don Philip, and the Princeſs Mary Anne Sophia, 2d Daughter of the King of Poland. They add, that the Certificates arrived from thoſe who had the Ordering of the Proviſions in Servia, are very much in favour of Count Seckendorff, which deſtroys the Reports that the ſaid General had diverted a Part of them to his own Profit. 'Tis ſaid, that the Emperor has moderated the Sentence paſs'd by the Council of War at Belgrade againſt General Doxat, and that all his Puniſhment will be Baniſhment from his Offices, and from the Hereditary Dominions.

They write from Madrid, that there have been very univerſal and ſplendid Rejoicings for 3 Days together on Account of the Marriage of the King of the Two Sicilies with the Princeſs Royal of Poland; and that Farinelli ſung a fine Italian Piece of his own Compoſing, at the Opera, upon that Occaſion.

Yeſterday Morning died, after two Days Illneſs, the Lady Delawar, Relict of the late Lord Delawar, and Mother to the preſent Lord Delawar, Colonel of the Firſt Troop of Life Guards.

On Monday laſt died Mr. Hazard, Head Examiner of the new Duties belonging to his Majeſty's Revenue of Exciſe, a Place worth 120 l. per Annum, and is in the Gift of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe.

We hear that Richard Herbert, Eſq; of Oakley Park, Member of Parliament for Ludlow, and Brother to Henry Herbert, Eſq; Treaſurer to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, will ſucceed Colonel Townſhend as Groom of the Bed-chamber to his Royal Highneſs.

Yeſterday John Orlebar, Eſq; took the Oaths in the Court of Common Pleas, to qualify himſelf as one of the Commiſſioners of Exciſe, in the room of Humphry Thayer, Eſq; deceaſed.

The only ſhort and infallible CURE For the HEMORRHOIDS or PILES of any Kind, or in either Sex; and allowed ſo to be by the moſt eminent Phyſicians in Europe

IT is a pleaſant ELECTUARY, which at once infallibly cures the Piles, be they ever ſo bad, and even after all other Means have failed, and that without any Trouble, Difficulty, or the leaſt Confinement; in the ſharpeſt Pain, and moſt miſerable Torture, it gives ſurprizing Relief, and almoſt miraculous Eaſe.

No ſooner is it taken ſcarcely, but all manner of Uneaſineſs vaniſhes, as if by Inchantment, and the Patient becomes as perfectly well and free from Pain, as if no ſuch Malady had ever been, and this it not only accompliſhes for the preſent, in all Perſons whatſoever, but alſo, by totally ſubduing all Sharpneſs in the Blood and Juices, it certainly prevents any Return of the PILES for the future, to ſet intirely to cure that Illneſs, and thereby prevent Fiſtula's and other direful Conſequences, that cannot be too much dreaded.

Thouſands of Men and Women, who had for many Years more or leſs, been wretchedly afflicted with the PILES, have at once been perfectly cured by this great Remedy, to their no leſs Joy and Comfort than Admiration.

It is ſo ſafe, that a ſucking Child might take it without Inconvenience, for it never occaſions the leaſt Trouble or Diſorder, and is ſo very agreeable to take, as not to give Diſtaſte to the niceſt Palate. Is ſold only at Jacob's Coffee-houſe, againſt the Angel and Crown Tavern in Broad-ſtreet, behind the Royal-Exchange, at 5 s. a Pot, with Directions.

The only infallible and ſpeedy Cure for the moſt confirmed LEPROSY, either of the Moiſt or Dry Kind,

By a pleaſant Electuary that has been ſold for ſeveral Years paſt by the late Mr. Parry, in Boar's-head Court, Fleet-ſtreet, with much, and happy Benefit to the Publick; and is now ſold only by Mr. Read, for 5 s. a Pot, with Directions, at his Houſe in White-Fryars.

N. B. You turn inſuſt by the Sun Tavern in Fleet-ſtreet, and it is the great Corner Houſe in White-Fryars; James Read, in great Letters, is wrote over his Door.

FOR all Leprous and other ſtubborn Breakings out on the Skin, whether of the whole Body, or in particular Parts only, this is the only ſure and eaſy Method of Cure, being an incomparable pleaſant Electuary, which, after all the uſual Methods and Medicines, and even Salivations tried in vain, perfectly eradicates thoſe inveterate Maladies, tho' of many Years ſtanding, ſo as never to return again, accompliſhing that in a few Days, which no other Means can poſſibly perform in many Months, and that with the greateſt Safety in the World, and without any Confinement, as has been happily experienced by many Hundreds.

Common Itches, and other ſlight Foulneſſes of the Skin, it compleatly cures almoſt in an Inſtant, without Trouble; and for the worſt Scabbineſs, and moſt grievous Leproſy, may certainly be depended upon as abſolutely infallible, as the Patients themſelves in three Days Time will aſſuredly find.

N. B. This noble Specifick Electuary may be taken with equal Succeſs in extreme Weather, hot or cold, by following the printed Directions given with the Medicine.
